- II. Agenda approval: Barlow moved; seconded by Richards – motion approved
- III. Opening Remarks: n/a
- IV. Approval of Minutes: Barlow moved; seconded by Richards – motion approved
- V. Reports
  - a. Assistance to CLCEC re: period of significance – response from History Colorado and DOLA: Lindsey Orr of History Colorado replied to Cindy McLoud. In sum, History Colorado is generally supportive of the direction of the project. They agree that it is ok to remove the theater windows as it is consistent with the 1947 period of significance. However, History Colorado would like some modifications to the façade design of the other two buildings.
  - b. McLoud provided an update on the Murdock Building. The contracting process for the currently funded work is moving forward.
- VI. Unfinished Business
  - a. CLG grant application – due Nov. 17: The commission continued work on a CLG grant application due on Nov. 17. Barlow got estimates for cast metal plaques from the sign shop in La Junta; prices range from $300-400 depending on size and wording. Courkamp and Roberts will finish grant; Roberts will take to BOCC meeting on Nov. 13 for signature.
  - b. Letter soliciting applications for new Board member: Roberts has requested notice be put in the Press twice.
- VII. New Business
  - a. EHS student Tori Uhland has been working on getting the KCHPC website up and running. Courkamp will work with Roberts to submit a timesheet for Uhland's time to the BOCC for payment.
- VIII. Public Forum – n/a
- IX. Announcements: There will not be a meeting in December. The next meeting will be on Monday, January 5, 2015.
- X. Adjourn: 7:55 p.m.
